

You're Invited!

56th Annual Mackid Lecture

Improving safety in health systems: Identifying and challenging our anti-Indigenous bias as physicians.

*presented by:
Dr. Pam Roach &
Dr. Lindsay Crowshoe*

After this session, participants will:

- be able to recognize the health impacts of anti-Indigenous bias for Indigenous people
- understand the prevalence and characteristics of anti-Indigenous bias among Albertan physicians
- be able to examine their understandings of how and where they can challenge anti-Indigenous bias at different levels in the health system

Tuesday, September 27 from 5:30-9:00pm
Best Western Premier Calgary Plaza Hotel

Agenda:

5:30-6:45pm - Reception & Happy Hour (including light meal)

Reception sponsored by the Community Medical Staff Association (CMSA)

6:45-7:00pm - Department of Family Medicine
Physician Awards

7:00-8:30pm - Improving safety in health systems: Identifying and challenging our anti-Indigenous bias as physicians.
followed by questions/discussion

8:30pm - Closing

2 Mainpro Credits (pending)

Cost: $40

To register: email family.medicine@albertahealthservices.ca