

The Office of Health and Medical Education Scholarship presents:

How to combine theory and praxis in our many complementary and conflicting roles as academics in medical education

Dr. Ayelet Kuper
University of Toronto

Dr. Tina Martimianakis
University of Toronto

Friday, September 9, 2022

11:00am-12:30pm

O1500 Health Sciences Centre

Drs. Kuper and Martimianakis will open this workshop with presentations based in their own lived experiences and theoretical orientations, and then engage participants with exercises and small group discussion to help them identify relevant ways to integrate their positionalities in the many aspects of their work educating, leading, providing care, researching etc.

RSVP to ohmes@ucalgary.ca by September 1. Light lunch provided.
