

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY
CUMMING SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

ORTHOPAEDIC SURGERY RESIDENCY TRAINING PROGRAM Funding
Summary for Resident Courses

Resident Year	Course	Amount Covered/resident	Source of Funding
R1	ATLS	-	Processed through the MEO
R1	ACLS	-	Processed through the MEO
R1	BLS	-	Processed through the MEO
R2	AO Basic Principles of Fracture Management	$2000	Processed through Orthopedics
R3	COA Basic Science Course (Virtual) Part 1_$300 Part 2_$300	$600	Processed through Orthopedics
R4	Taylor/Hollinshead Endowment (to be used on a course of your choice)	$1000	Processed through Orthopedics
R4	AO Advanced Principles of Fracture Management or equivalent subspecialty course	$1000	Processed through Orthopedics
R5	Ste. Justine's Pediatric Review Course - SPORC	$1500	Processed through Orthopedics
R5	Canadian Orthopaedic Resident Forum (CORF) (course registration cost is covered)	$600	Processed through Orthopedics
R5	Exam Review or Preparation Course of your choice	$2000	Processed through Orthopedics

*PGME also has a limited amount of funding available to support resident conference travel to present complete and original research conducted at the University of Calgary. Visit this link for deadlines (quarterly) and details on applying: <https://cumming.ucalgary.ca/pgme/current-trainees/resident-research-travel-grants>

*PGME has a limited amount of funding available to facilitate and support resident leadership development opportunities. Visit this link for deadlines (quarterly) and details on applying: <https://cumming.ucalgary.ca/pgme/current-trainees/resident-leadership-travel-grants>

Please note that course attendance is expected between July and March of the resident year indicated. If you are planning to attend a course in which expenses are incurred between April 1 and June 30, please notify the program office as soon as possible to determine if funding will be available.

*Submit all receipts, credit card statements, flight itineraries and conference/course programs electronically in one file to Zainy Abdy at zainab.abdy@ucalgary.ca