

MDSC321 Graduate Assistant - Teaching (GAT) Position – Fall 2024
Bachelor of Health Sciences Program, Cumming School of Medicine

A half-time GAT position is available for MDSC321 – Introduction to Immunology. This undergraduate course provides an introduction to the host immune system, infectious diseases and vaccination.

The successful applicant will be mature, responsible, reliable, and able to meet deadlines. The candidate is preferably in their second year or higher of their masters or PhD program, preferably with a specialization in immunology. Students in other specializations will be considered if they can demonstrate a strong immunology background.

This position requires a graduate student with excellent writing skills (a writing sample may be requested) and the ability to provide constructive feedback on student essays. Outstanding organizational, verbal, and written skills are essential for success in this position. Experience with delivering online courses and/or the associated technologies is preferred.

This role supports Dr. Jenne in the following duties:

- grading course papers in a timely manner
- managing submissions of assignments
- providing input on online course delivery options
- managing and facilitating student questions during lectures

To apply, please send a completed BHSc GA(T) Application, a statement of interest, and CV to Dr. Jenne (cnjenne@ucalgary.ca).

The deadline to apply is Monday, July 22.
