

Graduate Assistant - Teaching (GAT) Position Available 2024-25

Half-time, MDSC 308 Research Ethics Module (mid-November to mid-February)

Applications are invited from graduate students for a half-time GAT position for MDSC 308 - Interdisciplinary Research Approaches. The Research Ethics module in this second-year undergraduate course offers an introduction to scientific integrity and clinical research ethics to second year undergraduates.

The successful applicant will be mature, responsible, reliable, able to meet deadlines, and preferably in the second year or higher of a Master's or PhD program, with a strong knowledge of ethics and demonstrated ability to write well. Students in other specializations will be considered who have a strong social science or law background.

This position requires a graduate student with excellent writing skills (a writing sample is requested) and the ability to provide constructive comments on student essays.

This role supports Dr. J. Guichon in the grading of the Research Ethics exam and paper in MDSC 308 and assists with facilitating the delivery of course content, including

- Attending lectures
- Facilitating student questions during lectures
- Conducting seminars of 20 students
- Managing submissions of assignments
- Ensuring fair and consistent marking
- Meeting the 21-day marking deadline
- Meeting with students about grades

Interested students are invited to send a completed BHSc GA\(T\) Application, a statement of interest, CV and writing sample to Dr. J. Guichon guichon@ucalgary.ca.

Application deadline: Open until suitable candidate is found.
