Policy on Answering Student Emails

Instructors are available to meet by appointment.

Students contacting the instructors via email can generally expect a response within 48 hours (excluding weekends and statutory holidays). Substantive issues should be addressed in person either after class or by appointment.

Time and Location:

Tuesdays and Thursdays 3:30pm – 4:45pm
ST 064

Prerequisite:

Biochemistry 401 or 443; Medical Science 351 or Biology 331; and Cellular, Molecular and Microbial Biology 411, or consent of the instructor.

Course Description:

Advances in methodology and in theoretical concepts have permitted continuing breakthroughs in our understanding of the organismal, cellular and molecular biology of cancer cells, and in the development of novel strategies for cancer prevention, diagnosis and treatment. These advances will be presented in a comprehensive overview of cancer including issues of demographics and incidence, causation and detection, origins and progression and therapeutics approaches. Emphasis will be placed on the cell and molecular biology of cancer and on the interaction of the cancer cell with the host organism.

Overarching Theme

This course will explore the nature of cancer, including its global burden, the hallmarks that are common among most cancers, how cancer is caused and treated, including an exploration of emerging therapeutics.

Global Objectives

- To gain a comprehensive understanding of cancer – what it is, how it arises and how we treat it.
- To engage students in active discussion of topical issues in cancer biology
- To introduce students to the breadth and excitement of cancer research

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Understand the scale of cancer burden globally
2. Describe the hallmarks of cancer and the interplay of them in cancer development, tumour growth and spread.
3. Understand the molecular mechanisms underlying the common causes of cancer, including viruses, environmental toxins, radiation and genetics
4. Define categories of anti-cancer therapies (including chemotherapy, radiotherapy and immunotherapy), their history and emerging therapeutic approaches.

Required Textbooks

There is no required textbook for this course.

Readings (or links thereto) will be posted on D2L. Your instructors have chosen the required readings carefully to inform you and to enhance the lecture material. Students are REQUIRED to complete assigned readings BEFORE each lecture. Instructors will proceed in class on the assumption that students have read the assigned material.

Evaluation

The University policy on grading and related matters is described in section F.2 of the 2018-2019 Calendar.

In determining the overall grade in the course, the following weights will be used:

Quiz (in class; Thurs. Jan 31)	10%
In-class test (theme 1; Tues. Feb 26)	25%
In-class test (theme 2; Thurs. Mar 21)	25%
Written assignment (take home; due Thurs Apr 11)	15%
Registrar-scheduled final exam (theme 3; April 15-27)	25%

All assessments, except the written assignment, will be closed book.

A Note regarding Writing Assignments:

Writing skills are important to academic study in all disciplines. In keeping with the University of Calgary's emphasis on the importance of academic writing in student assignments (section E.2 of 2018-19 Calendar), writing is emphasized, and the grading thereof in determining a student's mark in this course. The University of Calgary values excellence in writing. Competence in writing entails skills in crafting logical, clear, coherent, non-redundant sentences, paragraphs and broader arguments, as well as skills with the mechanics of writing (grammar, spelling, punctuation). The University of Calgary offers a number of instructional services through the Students' Success Centre's Writing Support Services (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/writingsupport/>) for students seeking feedback on assignments or seeking to improve their general writing skills. Students are strongly encouraged to take advantage of these programs.

Grading Scheme:

A+ 95-100%	B+ 79-82%	C+ 65-69%	D+ 53-55%
A 88-94%	B 74-78%	C 60-64%	D 50-52%
A- 83-87%	B- 70-73%	C- 56-59%	F 0-49%

Missed Components of Term Work:

For MDSC/CMMB 561, late assignments will not be accepted and will automatically receive a mark of zero.

Students who miss a quiz/test will receive a mark of zero unless the instructor has been notified prior to the start of the class. There will be NO exceptions to this policy.

It is the agreement of all Faculty involved in MDSC/CMMB 561 that extensions will NOT be granted. The only exceptions to this are those in keeping with the University Calendar (debilitating illness, religious conviction, or severe domestic affliction) that are received in writing and with supporting documentation. Traffic jams and late or full buses are common events in Calgary and are NOT acceptable reasons for late arrivals to class or examinations. Please note that while absences are permitted for religious reasons, students are responsible for providing advance notice and adhering to other guidelines on this matter, as outlined in the University Calendar (<https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-4.html>). In this case, alternative arrangements will be made.

Brightspace by Desire2Learn (D2L)

Brightspace (by D2L) is located on the University of Calgary server and will be used extensively for communication with students. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that they receive all posted communications and documents and that they receive emails sent by instructors or fellow students through D2L. Only your @ucalgary.ca email address may be linked to D2L. Please ensure that you are regularly checking your @ucalgary.ca account.

If you need help accessing or using D2L, please visit the Desire2Learn resource page for students: <http://elearn.ucalgary.ca/d2l-student/>.

Policies Governing the Course:

Conduct During Lectures

The classroom should be respected as a safe place to share ideas without judgement - a community in which we can all learn from one another. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a mature and courteous manner during ALL lectures. Students are expected to frame their comments and questions to lecturers in respectful and appropriate language, always maintaining sensitivity towards the topic.

To be successful, students are expected to take notes during class and should not rely solely on material supplied by the instructors.

Electronic Devices

The University of Calgary program aims to create a supportive and respectful learning environment for all students. Research studies have found that student use of electronic devices (laptops, tablets, etc) in the classroom negatively affects the learning of both the user and those sitting nearby. Inappropriate use of laptops is also disruptive to your fellow classmates and disrespectful to the lecturer. The use of laptops and other electronic note-taking devices is permitted; however, their use in the classroom should be for course-related work/note-taking only. Please do NOT to surf the web, check email or do other unrelated work. Students who use their laptops inappropriately or are otherwise disruptive during lectures will be asked to leave.

Cell phones (or similar devices) should be turned off (not merely silent) upon entering the classroom. Sending/receiving text messages or leaving the class to take calls is disruptive to the entire class and will not be tolerated unless absolutely necessary. Students who disregard this rule during lectures or tutorials will be asked to leave. These items are not permitted under any circumstance during exams/quizzes, etc.

Copyright

It is the responsibility of students and professors to ensure that materials they post or distribute to others comply with the Copyright Act and the University's Fair Dealing Guidance for Students (library.ucalgary.ca/files/library/guidance_for_students.pdf). Further information for students is available on the Copyright Office web page (<http://library.ucalgary.ca/copyright>)

A Note Regarding Instructor Intellectual Property

Generally speaking, course materials created by professor(s) (including course outlines, presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the professor(s). These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the professor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Academic Accommodations Based on Disability or Medical Condition

It is the student's responsibility to register with Student Accessibility Services to be eligible for formal academic accommodation in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities (https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities_0.pdf). If you are a student who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with Student Accessibility Services, please contact their office at (403) 220-8237; <http://www.ucalgary.ca/access/>. Students will be provided with all necessary accommodations to ensure equal opportunity to succeed in this course. Please provide the instructor your accommodation letter from Student Accessibility Services within 14 days after the start of this course so that all needed arrangements for exams and assignments can be made.

Accommodations on Protected Grounds other than Disability

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to the designated contact, Mrs. Jennifer Logan (jljlogan@ucalgary), or to Dr. Ebba Kurz, Associate Dean, Undergraduate Health and Science Education, Cumming School of Medicine. Students who require an accommodation unrelated to their coursework or the requirements for a graduate degree, based on a protected ground other than disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to the Vice-Provost (Student Experience). For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Academic Misconduct

The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. The University of Calgary has created rules to govern all its members regarding the creation of knowledge and the demonstration of knowledge having been learned. These rules are contained principally in Sections J to L of the University of Calgary Calendar. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. The Calendar also stipulates the penalties for violating these rules. Please know that the University and the Cumming School of Medicine take these rules seriously. All incidences of academic dishonesty in this course, such as cheating and plagiarism, will be reported to the Associate Dean for investigation; infractions will be noted on the record of a student found to be guilty.

Recording of Lectures

Audio or video recording of lectures is prohibited except where explicit permission has been received from the instructor.

If these concerns cannot be resolved, students can proceed with an academic appeal, as per Section I of the University Calendar. Students must follow the official reappraisal/appeal process and may contact the Student Ombuds' Office (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/ombuds>) for assistance with this and with any other academic concerns, including academic and non-academic misconduct. Students should be aware that concerns about graded term work may only be initiated within 15 days of first being notified of the grade.
