

Position Available
for Graduate Assistant (Teaching)

2026-27

*Half-time, MDSC 308 Research Ethics Module
(mid-November to early December 2026, and late March to mid-April 2027)*

Applications are invited from graduate students for two half-time Graduate Assistant (Teaching) ("GAT") position for MDSC 308 - Interdisciplinary Research Approaches. Within that course, the Research Ethics module in the Bachelor of Health Sciences program offers an introduction to scientific integrity and clinical research ethics to second year undergraduates.

Successful applicants will be mature, responsible, reliable, able to meet deadlines, and preferably in the second year or beyond of a Master's or PhD program, with a strong knowledge of ethics and demonstrated ability to write well. Students with a strong background in social science, law or philosophy will also be considered.

This position requires a graduate student with excellent writing skills (a writing sample is requested) and the ability to provide constructive comments on student essays.

This role supports Dr. J. Guichon in the grading of the Research Ethics exam and paper in MDSC 308 and assists with facilitating the delivery of course content, including

- Attending lectures
- Facilitating student questions during lectures
- Conducting seminars of 20 students
- Managing submissions of assignments
- Ensuring fair and consistent marking
- Meeting the 21-day marking deadline
- Meeting with students about grades

Interested students are invited to send:

1. A complete BHSc GA\(T\) one page application;
2. A copy of official academic transcripts;
3. A statement of interest (not written by artificial intelligence (AI));
4. CV; and
5. A writing sample by the applicant (not written by AI and not a co-authored document) to Dr. J. Guichon guichon@ucalgary.ca.

Application deadline: Open until a suitable candidate is found.