

EMS Ground Shift Evaluation

Pediatric Emergency Medicine Subspecialty Residency - University of Calgary

Please complete this resident evaluation at the end of the ride-along shift. All shifts are variable, therefore if you are unable to assess some components of the resident written on this evaluation, please state "N/A".

NAME OF RESIDENT: _____

DATE OF RIDE-ALONG: _____

	Below Expectations	Meets Expectations	Exceeds Expectations
Responsibility	Undependable. Frequently late or unavailable. Needs frequent reminders. Does not complete assigned work.	Reliable and dependable. Prompt and keen to learn.	Consistently demonstrates exceptional commitment. Willingly gives extra time to patient care.
Enthusiasm for Learning	Lacked enthusiasm. Avoided learning opportunities.	Usually enthusiastic. Good self-learning skills. Sought out opportunities to improve skills / knowledge base.	Exceptionally enthusiastic. Superb self-learning skills. Availed self of many opportunities to improve skills / knowledge base.
Team Relationships	Behavior interferes with performance. Unable to get along with team members. Poor leadership and conflict resolution skills.	Active team member. Works well with others. Developing leadership skills.	An active team member with well developed leadership skills. Communicates well in difficult situations without antagonizing others.

Comments:

---

---

---

Evaluator Name: _____

Signature: _____

Position: _____

Date: _____