OADR Grant Development Webinar: ABCs of DMPs - Data Management Plans

Wednesday, November 4th, 2020

11:00 am – Noon

Data management is an important part of conducting research and data management plans are becoming increasingly important in research grants. Funding agencies may require a data management plan as part of your grant application or at the time of funding. Learn what a data management plan is, what you should consider when creating a plan, and how you can incorporate data management into your next grant application.

Presenter: Heather Ganshorn, Associate Librarian, Research Data Management
