Funding Opportunities

Webinar: 13th JPIAMR Call - One Health interventions to prevent or reduce the development and transmission of AMR

JPIAMR is pleased to invite researchers to a live webinar presenting the call “One Health interventions to prevent or reduce the development and transmission of Antimicrobial Resistance (AMR)” and the partner search tool. Representatives from funders participating in the call will be available to answer questions, such as:

- How do I apply and how does the funding work?
- How can I find and create research collaborations?
- For researchers in Africa, Southeast Asia, Latin America and beyond. How do I apply for funding?
- What is JPIAMR and how do I know if I can apply for funding in this call?

Date: January 28, 2021

Time: 7:00 AM (Calgary time)

Read more and register to the webinar here

The call opens early 2021.

For more information about the call, please visit CIHR's Pre-Announcement and the Joint Programming Initiative on Antimicrobial Resistance websites.

CIHR - Operating Grant : HIV/AIDS and STBBI Community-Based Research \(2021\)

The CIHR HIV/AIDS Community-Based Research \(CBR\) Program is one of four research funding areas of the CIHR HIV/AIDS Research Initiative. The CBR Program supports the partnered work of Community Leaders and Researchers in knowledge development and capacity-building initiatives of relevance to communities engaged in the fight against HIV/AIDS and/or other STBBI. All opportunities offered through the CBR Program are available in two distinct funding streams: Indigenous and General. The aim of the Operating Grant component of the CBR Program is to contribute to the creation, dissemination and use of health-related knowledge, and to help develop research capacity, by supporting original, high-quality projects proposed and conducted in partnership with the community and academia. Research Services' final internal deadline for the full application is April 23, 2021 at noon. For more information, please see the Funding Calendar. Please note this competition will run through the Research Management System.
