Clinical Trial Market Day

May 20th, 2021

Please join us for the virtual Clinical Trial Market Day on Thursday, May 20th, 2021 from 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM.

The Clinical Trial Market Day offers investigators and their teams the opportunity to learn about available clinical trial services, connect with service providers and discuss their clinical trial plans.

As a special feature, we will be demonstrating the Clinical Trial Management System (CTMS). Come and meet the CTMS team and learn all about what the CTMS will offer.

This year, the Clinical Trial Market Day will take place in a new virtual conference platform called Gather.town. The meeting link and password will be provided on May 19th.
