Join the Alberta SPOR SUPPORT Unit (AbSPORU) and our SPOR partners across Western and Northern Canada, as we host the top experts in patient-oriented research and patient engagement to discuss the biggest issues and latest developments in patient-oriented research.

The 2022 NorthWest SPOR Collaborative Forum will take place October 3rd (in-person in Edmonton and Calgary) and October 4th (online).

This year's theme is "Embracing the New Normal: Patient-Oriented Research Practices and Impacts." This hybrid event will include panel sessions, interactive workshops, networking activities, a poster session, highlighted oral abstracts presentations, and much more!
