CIHR Clinical Trials Funding - Pre-submission Grant Opportunity
Training Grant: Clinical Trials Training Platforms

The Government of Canada announced a $250 Million investment over three years for the Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR) to increase clinical research capacity through a new fund – the Clinical Trial Fund (CTF). The goal of this investment will be to establish the foundation for a sustainable clinical trials ecosystem in Canada.

A grant competition related to Clinical Trials Training Platforms has been announced by CIHR.

To support clinical trial research at the University of Calgary, the Vice President Research, the Cumming School of Medicine and AHS through the Clinical Research Fund (CRF) are offering an internal competition for pre-submission grants of up to $10,000 to strengthen a forthcoming application to this competition.

These funds can be used to pay for project management support, scientific writing, team meetings or other eligible expenses that will help the UC team to submit their application. The Grant Development Office at the OADR, CSM education portfolio and the Calgary Centre for Clinical Research Clinical Trial Training Program are available to provide additional support, including peer review and input on the pedagogical aspects of the application.

Eligible applicants must be CSM faculty members and eligible to hold CIHR grants as well as a CRF grant as the nominated principal applicant. The University of Calgary must be listed as the institution paid on the CIHR application.

To learn more about this funding opportunity and access the online application form, please visit CCCR - Clinical Research Fund webpage.

Two grants of $10,000 are available. Applications will be accepted until both grants have been awarded.
