The Cumming School of Medicine publishes on its web page a directory of its members. Directory information includes academic rank and departmental affiliation(s), and contact information where available. Contact information may include postal and e-mail addresses, as well as telephone and fax numbers. Office contact information is preferred.

The directory has been designed so that the contact information of only one faculty member at a time can be read. Similar to the University's Calendar, which is also available on the web, it will be possible to read a list of the names and academic ranks of all members of one department. Individual addresses, etc., however, may be reached one at a time only.

The directory and contact information, which is updated weekly, is administered by the Dean's office, Cumming School of Medicine. If you have any questions about the directory, please call the Dean's office at 403-220-6843.
