

CMPA

Canadian Medical Protective Association

Physicians and trainees engaged in clinical services with AHS must submit (email/fax/hardcopy) proof of malpractice coverage to their Clinical Departments or Programs for verification and forwarding to Medical Affairs. Coverage is typically through the Canadian Medical Protective Association (CMPA).

In order to become a member of the CMPA:

1. You must be registered with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Alberta (CPSA).
2. Application to the CMPA may be done by contacting CMPA office at 1-800-267-6522 or <http://www.cmpa-acpm.ca>.

Membership Update

Dr. John Smith
1234 Resident Street NW
CALGARY AB T2N 1X7
CAN

Protection Information* for the period of December 2010 through June 2011.

From (mm/dd/yyyy)	To (mm/dd/yyyy)	Code	Province Of Work	Region
01/07/2010	06/30/2011	12	AB	C

*Membership Fees are based on the above protection information.

The information below reflects all codes and provinces of work on file for your membership. If the current Type of Work and Province of Work information is not as shown, please contact the CMPA so that we may update your record.

All Type of Work Codes			All Provinces of Work
From (mm/dd/yyyy)	To (mm/dd/yyyy)	Code	From (mm/dd/yyyy)	To (mm/dd/yyyy)	POW
01/07/2010	-----	12	01/07/2010	-----	AB
			05/04/2011	05/31/2011	NS

SAMPLE

Only page 1 of the CMPA Membership Update may serve as proof of membership. The coverage details must specify:

- coverage for entire period of clinical privileges within current calendar year;
- appropriate Type of Work Code; and
- province of work = Alberta.

Already a member, but need a copy of your document?

Members of the CMPA may obtain a copy of their Membership Update by using the Member Self Serve Tool on the CMPA Website <http://www.cmpa-acpm.ca> or by calling 1 800 267-6522.

THE CANADIAN MEDICAL PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

Home About the CMPA Membership Member self-service/web mail Member assistance Physician wellness Education Public policy Publications Research funding Media

WELCOME TO THE CMPA

Membership application form Fee calculator Change contact information Change banking information Change province/type of work Proof of membership Statement of Account Duplicate Annual Receipt

NOTE: CMPA Membership Cards do not provide proof of malpractice coverage.