

FINANCIAL RESOURCES

Below is a list of financial resources available to patients living in Alberta.

Alberta Adult Health Benefit Program

This program is supported by Alberta Health and provides coverage for qualifying individuals between the ages of 18 and 64 years.

Contact: 1-877-644-9992, or in Edmonton, phone 780-644-9992

Alberta Child Health Benefit Program:

This program is supported by Alberta Health and provides coverage for qualifying children and youth under the age of 18 years, or up to age 20 years if living at home and attending high school.

Contact: 1-877-644-9992, or in Edmonton, phone 780-644-9992

Alberta Blue Cross Non-Group Coverage:

This coverage is available to all Alberta residents under 65 years of age and their dependants. Subsidized rates are available to those who qualify.

Contact: 1-800-661-6995.

Insulin Pump Therapy Program:

This program is supported by Alberta Health and provides funding for the cost of insulin pumps and pump supplies for Alberta residents with Type 1 Diabetes who meet eligibility and clinical criteria.

Contact: 1-877-644-9992, or in Edmonton, phone 780-644-9992

Canada Revenue Agency

Disability Tax Credit Certificate:

Through the Government of Canada, individuals who have a severe and/or prolonged impairment in physical or mental functions may be eligible for this tax credit.

Contact: 1-800-959-8281

Welcome to myStudentPlan.ca

Post Secondary Institutions:

Adults attending post secondary institutions are eligible for insurance coverage via the institution. Contact student services for more information, or go to the identified webpage. If you are covered under your parent's insurance plan, you have the option to opt out of the institution's insurance plan which is imbedded into the tuition.

Contact: Through the Welcome to myStudentPlan.ca website