THE HEART OF IT ALL VANDERHOOF POPULATION 4,440

COMMUNITY

Vanderhoof is located at the geographical centre of B.C., and supports a population of approximately 10,000 people, including in-town and nearby rural communities. While forestry, agriculture, and tourism are major economic drivers, it's growing industry of mining is rapidly increasing the population, as well as the demand on health services.

Vanderhoof offers a vibrant arts and culture scene, sports and recreation opportunities for all ages, and endless lakes and trail systems within minutes of town. Affordable housing prices, a variety of educational facilities from elementary to college level, and it's proximity to Prince George makes Vanderhoof one of the most desirable Northern B.C. communities to join.

A brand new community pool opened in February 2019.
