

Human Factors in Healthcare

This 3-day course will discuss the role of Human Factors in Healthcare including, how to conduct evaluations of human error, icons and labels, digital interfaces, equipment procurement, processes, and physical environments. Participants will have opportunities for the application of human factors knowledge and methods through course modules covering case studies and methodologies in various clinical areas.

Now available in two locations!

Calgary

February 11, 18 & 25, 2020
8:30 AM to 4 PM

W21C Research and Innovation Centre
3280 Hospital Drive NW

Edmonton

March 2, 3 & 4, 2020
8:30 AM to 4 PM

Institute of Health Economics
10405 Jasper Ave NW

Interested in this course?

Learn more at w21c.org/education

