

Fellowship Training Program Application Process Domestic Trainees

The standard academic year for Fellowship Training Programs at the Cumming School of Medicine at the University of Calgary is July 1 to June 30. However, start dates may vary as they are determined by individual programs and may begin off cycle.

Application Submission: Applications must be submitted directly to the respective fellowship programs. Please refer to the PGME Contact List and contact programs for program specific details.

Application Procedure: Approximately eight (8) months prior to the desired start date – or according to the program’s application cycle, candidates should:

1. Confirm program availability – Contact the fellowship program to verify if applications are being accepted for the upcoming academic year.
2. Submit the application – if the program is accepting applications, send your complete application package directly to the program.
3. Provide proof of English language proficiency (if required) – Ensure you meet the English Language Proficiency requirement.
4. Await program review – The program will determine whether to conduct interviews and/or accept candidates.
5. Notification – Only successful candidates will be contacted.

Application Requirements: A complete application (submitted as a single PDF file) may include:

- A letter of intent specifying the desired fellowship program and the reasons for applying.
- A detailed Curriculum Vitae (CV) outlining previous training.
- Three (3) letters of recommendation from previous supervisors (no more than three).
- If applicable, evidence of English language proficiency per CPSA standards.

Note: Each program has specific requirements. Ensure you follow the program’s application guidelines.
