

6th Annual Global Child Health Virtual Conference

Wednesday November 24, 2021

0830-1230

theme:
resilience

0830-0930 Pediatric Grand Rounds

Resilience in Children After Trauma: New Pathways and New Possibilities

Dr. Caroline McDonald-Harker

Sociologist and Associate Professor, Department of Sociology & Anthropology
Director, Centre for Community Disaster Research
Mount Royal University

0930-0935 Global Child Health Unit Award Presentation

0945-1025 A Strategy to Support Equity and Resiliency in Indigenous, Local and Global Health

Dr. Dianne Mosher

Associate Dean, Indigenous Local and Global Health
Cumming School of Medicine, University of Calgary

1030-1100 Vietnamese Boat People: Sharing My Story of Hope, Survival and Resilience

Dr. Doan Le

Pediatric Hematologist, Alberta Children's Hospital
Clinical Assistant Professor, Cumming School of Medicine, University of Calgary

1100-1130 Disaster Trauma in Haiti: To be Resilient or not During Numerous Times of Adversity

Dr. Jean-François Lemay

Co-Director, Global Child Health Unit, Department of Pediatrics
Cumming School of Medicine, University of Calgary

Kaytlin Ginter, BScN

Registered Nurse, Foothills Medical Centre

1130-1200 The Drivers of Resilience and our Responsibility to Uphold

Dr. Joanne Liu

Professor, School of Population & Global Health, McGill University
Director, Pandemics and Health Emergencies Ready Lab (PERL)
Former International President, Doctors Without Borders/Médecins Sans Frontières

1200-1230 Final Thoughts and Question Period

Dr. Jean-François Lemay

This conference is free to attend

Please note there are 2 unique Zoom conference links.

0830-0935: Please register for Grand Rounds:
Click here to register

0945-1230: <https://ucalgary.zoom.us/j/96701932809>

For additional info contact Connie Campbell at connie.campbell@ucalgary.ca