EDUCATION FEATURE

Educator of the Month - May 2025

We are excited to highlight May's Educator of the Month - Dr. David Patton.

A big thank you to Dr. Patton for all he does!

EDUCATOR OF THE MONTH

MAY 2025

Dr. David Patton

Sections of Pediatric Cardiology and Cardiac Sciences

What are the current Education roles/positions that you hold?

I'm a clinician-educator in Pediatric Cardiology here at ACH, and I also teach cardiac MRI physics and adult congenital cardiac imaging to Cardiology and Diagnostic Imaging residents at the Stephenson Cardiac Imaging Centre.

What do you enjoy most about working in Medical Education, and what tips would you like to share?

Pediatric Cardiology has changed immensely over the years, and medical education has gone through many iterations. One unchanging aspect, however, is that teachers are among the most influential factors for learners' abilities to acquire knowledge, skills, and attitudes needed to be competent practitioners. I've had the pleasure of working with many excellent medical educators and learners over the years, and try to integrate what they have taught me into my own teaching style. I particularly enjoy individual and small group teaching, where a key to success is understanding individual needs and objectives, and where content can be personalized and feedback immediate.

Learners know I often use the term "predictive cardiology" in teaching. For example, knowledge of the anatomy of a particular structural heart condition will lead to a discussion of the ways in which this could be repaired. In turn, knowledge of the actual repair leads to a discussion and prediction of short and long-term problems that need to be assessed and managed, or in the case of cardiac imaging, how a patient-specific cardiac MR imaging study is planned, performed and reported. Great strides have been made in congenital cardiology teaching, and there is room to grow in the future. It will be interesting to see how simulation and virtual reality using 3D computer-generated heart models will be used to teach about congenital heart problems in the future.

Great job Dr. David Patton!

In-person Dialogue - Ethical Space with Willie Ermine

Friday, May 23 | 9:30 -- 11 AM

Location: Libin Theatre, Foothills Campus, in-person only

This is an excellent opportunity to learn how to bring Indigenous perspectives into your research and to better understand ethical space and the role you play in it.

Our commitment as part of OCEC is to walk Parallel Paths focused on the well-being of every child. As we continue to learn how to be in ethical space together.

Willie J. Ermine, M.Ed., is a retired Emeritus Professor with the First Nations University of Canada. He is Neyhiyaw from the Sturgeon Lake First Nation in Saskatchewan, where he is a traditional health lead working on medicine, knowledge and ceremony. Ermine promotes ethical practices of research involving Indigenous peoples and is particularly interested in the conceptual development of the ‘ethical space’—a theoretical space between cultures and worldviews.

Evidence-Based Practice for Improving Quality (EPIQ) Workshop

Tuesday, June 17, 2025 | 8:30 AM – 3:30 PM | Alberta Children Hospital (Lunch Included)

Training front-line teams in quality improvement methods

The EPIQ Workshop aims to train physicians and other healthcare providers in quality improvement methods using a hands-on approach that enables teams to implement quality improvement together.

In this workshop you will learn:

- Why improvement science is valuable in health care and everyday life.
- Gain expertise on the QI process and understand how to implement it in your context.
- Establish a stronger understanding of your opportunities for change.
- Break down implementation into achievable steps.
- Get a handle on the logistics: plans, team creation, measurement, and more.

Workshop Facilitators:

- Ayman Abou Mehrem, Neonatologist and EPIQ Lead Facilitator
- Khorshid Mohammad, MD, Director, Newborn, Neuro-Intensive Care
- Claire Hamilton, MN RN, Quality Improvement Nurse
- Jumana Samara, MD, Neonatologist

Questions, contact the facilitators:

Calgary Neonatal Quality Improvement Education Program

Making Sense of QI Data Workshop

Tuesday, June 17, 2025 | 4:00 AM – 7:00 PM | Alberta Children Hospital

Objectives:

In this interactive hands-on workshop you will learn:

- The importance of QI data
- How to plan, collect, and classify QI data
- Various types of statistical process control (SPC) charts
- How to use QIMacros software to create SPC charts

Workshop Requirements:

To achieve the maximum benefit from this workshop, please come prepared:

- Bring your own laptop with Microsoft Excel software installed. Basic knowledge of Excel is important.
- Download and install QIMacros software few days prior to the workshop. A Free 30-day Trial can be downloaded from: <https://www.qimacros.com/>.
- Mock data will be available for practice purposes during the workshop. However, if you would like to test what you learn in the workshop, bring your own data with you. The last 30 minutes of the workshop is dedicated for practice on building various SPC charts.

Registration (Max 20 Participants)

Registration Fee: $100 CAD
